When I Look At You

Words & Music by John E. Mc Kinnon

Valse Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 3/4 time, marked 'Valse Moderato'. The piano part features a series of chords and moving lines in both hands. The vocal melody enters in the second system. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score includes dynamic markings such as f (forte) and p (piano). The key signature has one sharp (F#). The piece concludes with a poco rit. (poco ritardando) marking.

Wait just a lit - tle while long-er please do, That I may have one more
Some-time I feel the whole world has gone wrong, There's no long-er cheer-in the fond look at you, You ask why I look at you dear, as I do, Now lisp of a song, And I feel as though there is noth-ing worth while, I'd would you be - lieve me if I told you true, When in - to your fair face I give all I owned for just one pleasant smile, Now you ask why I look at look, _____ I see a life that we read of in books.

you, _____ Be - lieve me dear heart when I ans - wer you true.

poco rit.

CHORUS

I see a home that's all sun - shine, I see the babes on the floor, I see two bright eyes as they shine, Watch-ing for me at the door, Two arms are out-stretch'd to meet me, Af-ter the long day is through, I see an - oth-er I'd love next to moth-er, Sweet-heart when I look at you. you.
